Skills:

- Communication and Public Relations
- Health Education and Advocacy
- Exceptional writing and editing (voice consistency, plain-language summaries, headlines) and strong verbal communication.
- Strategic thinker who can translate organizational goals into content plans and editorial calendars; adept at prioritizing and switching contexts.
- Strong project management with on-time delivery across multiple workstreams and stakeholders.
- Media relations fundamentals (press notes, spokesperson prep) and confident public presence when needed.

- Team leadership: ability to work with a social media designer/poster; collaborative with a fully remote, neurodivergent staff.
- Deep commitment to gender-inclusive language, ethical storytelling, trauma-informed practices, and DEI; rigorous approach to consent, de-identification, and dignity-forward narratives.
